On the 27th Count Kinigſegg the Imperial Miniſter went from hence to Antwerp, to confer with the Deputies of the States General, who are at that Place; and this Day Mr. Leathes, His Britannick Majeſty's Secretary, went alſo to Antwerp, in order to exchange the Ratifications of the King his Maſter, with thoſe of the Emperour and States General.

Antwerp, Jan. 30. Count Kinigſegg and the Deputies of the States General, will finiſh their Conferences ('tis believed) this Night; ſo as to exchange the Ratifications to Morrow.

Dublin, Jan. 19. On the 16th Inſtant the Lord Viſcount Dillon came into the Houſe of Lords, delivered his Writ, and took the Oath of Allegiance; and being asked whether his Lordſhip would take the other Oaths, and make the Declaration, his Lordſhip was pleaſed to ſay he would conſider of it, and then withdrew. Reſolved, That no Lord of Parliament, after tendring his Parliamentary Writ of Summons in the Houſe, ſhall have Parliamentary Privilege in this Houſe, 'till ſuch Time as he ſhall have taken and ſubſcribed the Oath of Allegiance, and the other Oaths contained in the Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery; and alſo make and ſubſcribe the Declaration therein mentioned. Reſolved, That this Houſe do enter into an Aſſociation to defend and aſſiſt His Sacred Majeſty, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in his Royal Houſe, with their Lives and Fortunes, againſt the Pretender, and all his open and ſecret Abettors. And Lords Committees were appointed to draw up an Addreſs to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, humbly to deſire that their Excellencies will put the Laws in Execution againſt Papiſts, and all diſaffected Perſons, and alſo to put the Kingdom in the beſt Poſture of Defence that may be, and humbly to thank their Excellencies for the Care they have already taken on that behalf. On the 16th the Houſe of Commons Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That this Houſe do enter into an Aſſociation to Defend and Support His Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in His Royal Houſe, with their Lives and Fortunes, againſt the Pretender, and all his Adherents. Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That whatever Forces His Majeſty ſhall think fit to raiſe, or whatever Expence His Majeſty ſhall think neceſſary for the Defence of the Kingdom, this Houſe will enable His Majeſty to make good the ſame. Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, that they will be pleas'd to give proper Directions for Securing ſuch Papiſts, and other Perſons, as they ſhall ſuſpect to be diſaffected to His Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government. Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That it is the indiſpenſable Duty of all Magiſtrates, to put the Laws in immediate Execution againſt all Popiſh Prieſts, who ſhall Officiate contrary to Law; and that ſuch Magiſtrates who neglect the ſame, be look'd upon as Enemies to the Conſtitution.

The Aſſociation of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes of Ireland, in Parliament Aſſembled.

WHereas there is a moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion carried on in Great Britain, by Papiſts and perjur'd Traitors againſt His Moſt Sacred Majeſty King George, in order to place a Popiſh Pretender on the Throne of theſe Nations, to the utter Subverſion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties,

We the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament Aſſembled, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcrib'd, do heartily, ſincerely and ſolemnly profeſs, teſtify and declare, That His Majeſty King George is Rightful and Lawful King of Great Britain, Ireland and France, and of all the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging: And we do mutually promiſe and engage to ſtand by and aſſiſt each other to the utmoſt of our Power, in the Support and Defence of His Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon, Title and Government, againſt the Perſon, who during the Life of the late King James ſtiled himſelf Prince of Wales, and ſince his Deceaſe has taken upon himſelf the Stile and Title of King of England and Ireland by the Name of James the Third, and of Scotland by the Name of James the Eighth, and all his Adherents, and againſt all other Perſons whatſoever. And in caſe His Majeſty, His Royal Highneſs George Prince of Wales, the Princeſs, or any of their Iſſue, ſhould come to any violent or untimely Death, (which God forbid) We do hereby further freely and unanimouſly oblige our ſelves to Unite, Aſſociate, and Stand by each other in Revenging the ſame upon His and Their Enemies, and their Adherents; and in Supporting and Defending the Proteſtant Succeſſion in His Royal Houſe, as by Law eſtabliſh'd.

The Perſons who wrote a Letter to the Right Honourable the Lord Chief Juſtice Parker, dated the 23d Inſtant, and ſubſcribed W. H. F. B. T. R. F. B. S. C. R. S. are deſired to come to his Lordſhip's Chambers in Serjeant's-Inn, Fleet-ſtreet, in order to make out what they propoſe.
